

Coverage of true incidence under observation-biased feedback

Corrected coverage is measured ONLY on retained cells; naive coverage is measured on all cells. At $\kappa=0.85$ the corrector abstains on 85% of cells — the two curves have different denominators.